

VISIBLE IMPACT

Leadership

Heather Andersen works with leaders to leverage powerful communication, emotional intelligence and influencing skills so they can create a visible impact in their organizations. As an Executive Coach she helps senior leaders in multinational companies enhance their ability to lead effectively, particularly as they take on a more senior role or greater responsibility. She is passionate about helping people communicate and lead with greater impact.

With over a decade of experience working with a wide range of fortune 500 clients, Heather helps leaders capitalize on their strengths, open their eyes to what hinders their success, and shift their behaviors sustainably.

A Global Perspective

A love of working with people, engaging them, and sharing new ways of seeing is the thread that runs through the wide range of roles Heather has held. Not only a leadership coach, she has been a white water rafting guide, a cycling tour leader in Europe, a facilitator for leadership programs and a well traveled cross-cultural consultant. Having lived and worked around the world from India to Italy and many points between, she also has a passion for working with global leaders and those working to bridge cultural gaps whether between departments or countries.

Client Results

Clients appreciate Heather's ability to get to the core of their issue with clarity and compassion so that new, more compelling paths to success can be blazed.

"Heather is an expert coach who knows how to quickly get to the source of underlying circumstances or patterns in ones professional life and provide you with tools to help you navigate the situation expertly."

"She helped me to continuously set measurable goals and reframe how I view obstacles. Heather is a fabulous communicator, great listener and balances compassion with a no-nonsense approach."
